Abdoul Davincii: Singer of the first and only song dedicated to Victor Wembanyama: "WembYaa is NBA".

Abdoul Karim Tou-Kone, (born July 21, 1996) better known by his stage name Abdoul Davincii, is a hip-hop, afrobeat and rhythm and blues artist and singer-songwriter. He was born in Greensboro, North Carolina, and grew up in Côte d'Ivoire. He is a member of the hip-hop group Infinite Vibe. Abdoul Davincii appeared on the scene with his first single entitled "Rain on Me", which was released in 2017.

In the following years, he released various singles and EPs, and an album in 2023. Finally in 2024, he joined the Kadans'One group of French and English-speaking artists, and on June 14 released the single "WembYaa is NBA". A song dedicated to NBA player Victor Wembanyama, just named "Rookie of the Year".

Like Victor Wembanyama, Abdoul Davincii is a Francophone living in the United States.

Let's bet that "WembYaa is NBA" will follow in the footsteps of the global craze surrounding the sportsman who is starting to break NBA records.

Over the coming weeks and months, Paris will be in the spotlight more than ever with the Paris 2024 Olympic Games, and Kadan's One wanted to be part of the party and has just released its new single: Paris Ô, Paris J.O.

It's a safe bet that this single will be the jingle of the Paris Olympics.
